4.  LIAISON Called Duane Andrews, House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence staff, to ask if Representative Bill D. Burlison (D., Mo.) could meet with the Director on either 21 or 27 November for lunch and for briefings on his upcoming trip. After checking with the Congressman's office, Andrews said the 21st was out and the 27th was available, but that Mr. Burlison would be leaving town that day and would prefer to have the day open for cleaning up office matters. Andrews said they would prefer 24 November, but would leave it to the Director as to whether he needed to see Mr. Burlison or not. I asked
